

Sales Call — One-Page Cheat Sheet

Keep this open during the call

The whole call, compressed

- Y Am I speaking with the owner? ... My name's Satyam, I run Zordic — we help cafés get more repeat customers via WhatsApp. Not selling a POS machine, promise. 3 minutes?
- O (laughs) Okay, tell me, I'm a little busy.
- Y When a customer WhatsApps late at night about a table — what happens to that message?
- O Honestly, sometimes we see it in the morning. It gets missed.
→ That's his pain. Repeat it back.
- Y That's exactly what we fix. Zordic's an AI receptionist inside your own WhatsApp number. That 11 PM message gets answered instantly — booking taken, on your dashboard before you wake up.
- O Will the AI say something stupid to my customers?
- Y Right worry — anything sensitive (complaint, refund, big group) it does NOT answer alone. It says "let me check with the owner" and pings you. You watch every conversation live.
- O Okay good. How much?
- Y ₹3,000/month — about six tables. Win-back messages alone usually bring back more than that. First 10 days fully free, no card.
- O Free for 10 days?
- Y Yes, no card. Signup takes 2 minutes — open zordic.in/onboard, I'll stay on the line, we do it together now.
→ Walk them through it live: name → phone → done.
- Y Screenshot your username/password now. Café's live! I'll call tomorrow to connect WhatsApp — the last step, I do it with you. Welcome aboard! 🎉

If they push back

"Doing fine without it"

"Great — but [their pain]. Free for 10 days, worth a look?"

"Too costly"

"₹3,000 = six tables. Win-back alone usually beats that. 10 days free, zero risk."

"Not technical"

"If you use WhatsApp, you can use this. I set it up WITH you personally."

"Send me details" (polite no)

"Sending now — what's the one thing that'd need to work for you to trust it?"

Phone manner — 5 rules

1. Slow down — nervous sounds fast, trust sounds unhurried.
2. Pause after questions — count 3 in your head.
3. Their name 2–3 times, not more.
4. Never talk over them — stop the instant they speak.
5. One lane per call. Their pain, your fix.
